

SOUTH DAKOTA GRASSLAND COALITION'S 2016 Winter Road Show

December 12 – 16, 2016

Belle Fourche • Winner • Watertown • Yankton • Chamberlain

Dwayne Beck, Ph.D.

Guest speaker, Dwayne Beck, Ph.D., will discuss the importance of carbon compounds in the soil, mimicking natural systems with crop rotations, bale and swath grazing, and remote livestock monitoring.

Dwayne is the manager of Dakota Lakes Research Farm—a unique cooperative arrangement between SDSU and the agricultural producer members of the corporation. The primary goal of the farm, located near Pierre, is to identify, research, and demonstrate methods of strengthening and stabilizing the agriculture economy. Visit DakotaLakes.com to learn more.

Dwayne was inducted into the South Dakota Hall of Fame in 2007 and was presented with the American Agricultural Editors Association Distinguished Service Award in 2008. He has spoken at numerous national and international meetings and is renowned not just for his research work, but also for his teaching skills and his unique approach to managing ecosystems used for producing food.
