

38th Annual Ranchers Workshop

Tuesday, January 17, 2017

Community Events Center – White River, SD

9:00- 3:00 (CST)

(Registration begins at 9:00 a.m.)

Speaking for the Living Soil (continues after lunch)

Doug Peterson

Missouri Regional Soil Health Specialist

How to Produce Reputation Calves and Replacement Heifers

Travis Van Anne

Sr. Professional Service Veterinarian, Boehringer-Ingelheim Vetmedica, Inc.

Lunch Break

Improve Your Soils Health-It's in Your Control

(Doug Peterson --- continued from the morning)

Helping Ranch Families Cope with Current Market Conditions

Dr. Amber Letcher, PH.D.

Assistant Professor of Human Development & 4-H Youth Development Specialist

SDSU Department of Counseling and Human Development

Special Speaking Presentations

9:15-9:45 Topic: Multi-Species Grazing Pasture Diversification

Presenter: Carolina Noya

12:15-12:45 Topic: When It Rains, Is Your Soil Ready?

Presenter: Jeff Hemingway

Coordinated by:

SDSU Extension

Mellette & Todd County Conservation Districts

Natural Resources Conservation Service

Mellette-Todd County Farm Service Agency

South Central Resource Conservation & Development Council

USDA is an Equal Opportunity Provider, Employer, and Lender.

EXPO BOOTHS

Informational/vendor booths will be available to view all day.

For more information contact: (605)259-3252 Ext. 3

Persons requiring accommodations should call (605)259-3252 Ext. 3 one week in advance of the event.