

Lawrence County Grazing and Rangeland Field Day

July 18– Begins 2:00pm

Ellen Reddick Ranch – 1.5 miles south of Saint Onge

2:00-2:30 Resources for drought management, recognition, and planning

2:30-2:50 Evaluating pasture production and understanding the South Dakota Grazing Stick

2:50-3:20 Improving grazingland plant diversity and managing invasive cool-season grasses

3:20-3:40 Stream management with grazing animals and emerging conservation issues

3:40-4:40 Common rangeland plant identification

Start Meal presentations at 5:00 at the community hall in St. Onge

- Understanding seasonal forage quality changes and field indicators such as manure consistency and animal condition
- Resources to determine grazing lease values and considerations for strengthening grazing leases

Presentations by Adele Harty, Dave Ollila, Roger Gates, and NRCS staff.

Grassland Plants Identification Book and grazing sticks Provided by the SD Grassland Coalition

If you plan to attend the meal please RSVP by July 15th by calling 892-3368 ext. 3 or 642-3590

Persons requiring special accommodations should contact Mitch Faulkner at 605-892-3368 ext. 3 for assistance.

The USDA is an Equal Opportunity provider and Employer.

